

SHOE PUBLICITY

Korrek Shape

REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.
Patent Leather Shoes
GUARANTEED NOT TO BREAK

If you wish to enjoy every comfort and satisfaction of high-grade shoes at a minimum of cost and feel that you are getting every cent's worth of value, buy a pair of Korrek Shape Oxfords. They possess the extraordinary fit and style of much more expensive footwear, and are exceptionally light, cool and comfortable. Made in all the popular colors.

BURT & PACKARD CO.
Makers
BROCKTON, MASS.
READ OUR GUARANTEE

BUY A PAIR
TODAY

$4.00
BENCH
MADE $3.50

OUR GUARANTEE
If the upper breaks through before the first sole is worn through, we will replace with a new pair free.

SOLD BY

FAIR & CO.
THE FAIR DEALERS

Illinois Central Railroad—Time Table at Beaver Dam, Ky.
North Bound. South Bound.
No. 132—5:15 a.m. No. 121—11:25 p.m.
No. 122—12:20 p.m. No. 101—2:48 p.m.
No. 102—2:48 p.m. No. 131—8:05 p.m.
J. E. Williams, Agt.

Most of Your Earnings

Go for Eatables—

So why not see that this money is wisely spent?

There is freshness to think about—and cleanliness and economy.

This suggests to us that this store might be of service to you—because its aim is to deal in grocery goodness.

How well it succeeds is a matter for each customer to decide personally.

We would be glad to have YOUR opinion.

Iler's Grocery.

Our business is devoted exclusively to the Granite, Marble and Stone trade, and being thoroughly practical in same enables us to know your requirements. We only handle the very best Granite and Marble. And our reputation has been gained on just this class of work. Let us show you in dollars and cents that it is to your interest to buy of us. We gladly refer you to any of the parties we have furnished, as to our honesty and responsibility in dealings.

The Thomas Monumental Works,
Hartford, Ky

Poor prices on rich Clothing at Carson & Co's.

Mr. J. K. Tinsley was a pleasant caller Friday.

We buy as low as we can and sell the same way. Carson & Co.

New Hats every week in Fairs' millinery parlors.

See the late patterns in Men's fancy Hose at Fairs'.

New patterns in Mattings, Druggets and Carpets at Fairs'.

Fairs' Spring Suits excel all others in pattern and style.

Fairs' line of Ladies' Oxfords is the prettiest in Hartford.

The best Corsets are the American Lady, found at Fairs'.

Ready-made Waists and Skirts—the real new things—at Fairs'.

Mr. Dresswell buys LIBERTY SPECIAL Hats at Carson & Co's. 16-m

Fairs' Men's Hats department is brim full of spring novelties.

Don't buy your Low-Cut Shoes until you investigate Fairs' line.

Do your spring shopping at Fairs'. Prices right in every department.

Miss Savilla Ward, Hartford, route 3, was a pleasant caller Saturday.

The Hartford Mill Co. has plenty of good ear corn and oats for sale. 14tf

If you are thinking of buying a Stove or Range see U. S. Carson.

Exclusive styles in Millinery at Fairs'. Styles are new, prices low.

The Globe Stove Co.'s Stoves and Ranges are for sale by U. S. Carson.

Rev. T. C. Wilson, Cecilian, is spending this week with friends in Hartford.

Don't imagine you are getting the correct idea in Millinery until you see Fairs'.

Mr. S. E. Duke, who has been on the sick list for the past ten days, is improving.

Quality, neat work and style are what keep up the rush in Fairs' Millinery parlor.

Messrs. L. M. Lambert, Olton, and H. B. Bean, city, were among our callers Saturday.

If you have news for the paper or any kind of printing to be done call 'phone 217—The Herald.

Let Fairs' show you their new White Goods, fancy Wool Goods and new designs in Spring Organies.

Mr. John H. Barnes, cashier of the Beaver Dam Deposit Bank, was a pleasant caller Wednesday.

Several varieties of typewriter paper—including thin manifold—for sale in boxes at The Herald office. 1tf

We are prepared to furnish you Drv Goods, Clothing, Hats and Shoes. Carson & Co.

Dr. G. L. Everly, Ceralvo; Dr. L. B. Bean and J. L. Hoover, Hartford, and R. L. Godsey, Fordsville, were among our callers Friday.

Messrs. Jas. Ambrose, Ralph; W. F. Maddox, McHenry; J. H. Gray and Jno. Hines, West Hartford, were among our callers yesterday.

Rev. G. J. Bean, city; Messrs. A. E. Grant and H. Shantzler, Shreve, and R. H. Barnes, Beaver Dam, were among our callers Thursday.

Leave your Laundry at my Grocery. Domestic finish. Work Guaranteed. Called for and prompt delivery. 'Phone 140. Iler's Grocery.

LOST—Somewhere between Hartford and Beaver Dam, a package wrapped in a newspaper. Finder please return to this office and receive reward.

We will ship stock from Beaver Dam next Saturday the 30, instead of Monday, May 2. Parties interested please take notice.

TAYLOR, BEAN and TURNER.

Mr. Noah White, recently in the grocery business here, has accepted a position as traveling salesman for the Wyatt Produce Company, of Louisville.

Messrs. Allie V. Coppage, manager of the Cooper Telephone Co., Fordsville, and James Cooper, Hartford, route 2, were among our callers Monday.

Mr. J. C. Fehl, an expert stone-cutter of Louisville, has accepted a position to do lettering work for the Thomas Monumental Works of Hartford.

Miss Ettie Wise, who until recently has been employed in the telephone exchange here, has accepted a position as saleslady in the Rosenblatt store.

Mrs. Martha Ward, of Noreck, went to Kingswood, Ky., last Friday to attend the commencement exercises of Kingswood College. Mrs. Ward accompanied by her daughter, Miss Lydia Ward, who has been teaching in this college, will return home today.

Absolutely Pure

Grapes—delicious, healthful—give the most valuable ingredient, the active principle, to

ROYAL Baking Powder

Insures wholesome and delicious food for every day in every home
NO ALUM

Miss Evaline Caldwell, of Owensboro, will arrive in Hartford to-day and has accepted a position as stenographer for the law firm of Wilson & Crowe.

Dr. H. J. Bell, dentist, of the firm of Drs. Hardin & Bell, of Hartford, will be at Cromwell from May 2 to 7, inclusive, for the practice of his profession.

Regular services at the Cumberland Presbyterian church next Saturday and Sunday evenings. Preaching by Rev. N. G. Cundiff. Sunday School at 10 a. m. Sunday.

Mrs. J. A. Westerfield and children, of Dundee, were the guests of her sister, Mrs. U. S. Carson, and family, and other relatives in Hartford a few days last week.

Prof. W. E. Guyne, of Georgetown, is the guest of his former classmate, Mr. McDowell Fogle. He has just closed a successful school at Dixon, Ky., and is now en route home.

Leave your Laundry with Lyons & Duke (Hartford Grocery Co.) for the Richmond Steam Laundry, Richmond, Ind. This Laundry always gives satisfaction. Prompt delivery. Satisfaction guaranteed. 2-tf

Mr. C. W. Taylor, Superintendent of the W. C. Duncan Coal Co., Greenville, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Jennie Simpson, widow of the late Robert Simpson, McHenry, were in Hartford a few hours Wednesday afternoon.

The trial of J. C. Jones, who was arrested yesterday afternoon, charged with the offense of unlawfully selling intoxicating liquors in the city of Hartford, to-wit: several bottles of "ginger," is set for hearing in police court this morning.

The Rockport Coal Co. is nearly ready to commence active coal mining, everything being about ready. Manager H. L. Tucker has had a lot of work done since last year, and the mine gives promise of being one of the best in this part of the State.

The State meeting of the Holiness Association is now in session at Settle Memorial church in Owensboro. There is a large attendance and every section of the State is represented, including some of the ablest preachers in Kentucky. It will not finish until May 2.

The condition of Mrs. E. M. Woodward, who was dangerously ill, suffering from puerperal convulsions, and who underwent a necessary operation Monday evening, is greatly improved, and it is thought she will soon be convalescent. She is being attended by Miss Isabel Crouse, a trained nurse of Owensboro.

The marriage of Miss Ethel Plummer to Mr. Lewis Robertson, of Moorman, took place Wednesday, April 20, at the bride's home in Beaver Dam, Rev. J. T. Casebier officiating, and only a few friends being present. Mrs. Robertson is an attractive young woman and Mr. Robertson is a promising farmer. They will make their home at Moorman.

Mr. W. H. Burkholder, representing the James Clark, Jr., Electric Supply House, of Louisville, is in Hartford this week, wiring the new depot. He will put about forty electric lights into the building. Mr. Burkholder has just finished the enormous job of putting over 5,000 electric lights in the new State Capitol at Frankfort, where he, with a large force of assistants, spent three years on the work. He is an expert electrician and thoroughly understands his business.

Hez Carter, a negro "bootlegger," was arrested yesterday by Marshal S. F. Riley, charged with selling liquor without license. He was taken before Police Judge C. M. Crowe and a plea of guilty being entered and jury waived, defendant was fined $60 and forty days in jail. The judgment was suspended for six hours and Hez was notified to leave town and never return.

turn. He promised to obey the mandate of the Court, "not to stand on the order of going," but to go at once, which it is said he did.

Messrs. Andrew King and Thomas Johnson, who have been engaged in railroad carpenter work along the line of the new M., H. & E. for the past six months, will leave to-day for Russellville, where they will engage in the same line of work. These men have superintended and built a depot and section houses at the three towns of Hartford, Moorman and Dundee. The depot at Hartford is an exceptionally fine piece of work. Messrs. King and Johnson are experts in their line and the many splendid buildings they have constructed are monuments to the efficiency of their work.

Miss Dott King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew King, and Mr. Homer Blandsford were married at the residence of the bride's parents, 612 Triplett street, Owensboro, at 8:20 o'clock last Thursday morning. They left immediately on the I. C. train for Leitchfield, to visit relatives of the groom, after which they will return to Owensboro, the home of the groom. Mr. Blandsford has a fine position with the Ames Buggy Company and is a worthy young man. The bride spent her girlhood in Hartford and is a most winsome young lady. Both have many friends to wish them much connubial joy.

For Sale,

Three lots on Madison and Frederica streets, Hartford. For further particulars call on or address, F. L. Felix, Hartford, Ky.

WANTED!
CAR LOAD

OLD IRON AND JUNK

Will pay in cash the following prices, delivered at my place of business or depot at Hartford, Ky., Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 27, 28, 29 and 30th 1910:
Iron of all kinds (except sheet iron) free from wood, per hundred 25c
Sheet Iron per hundred pound.....
Dry Bones per hundred pound.....
Green Bones per hundred pound.....
Heavy Brass per pound.....
Light Brass per pound.....
Heavy Copper per pound.....
Light Copper and Copper Bottoms per pound.....
Zinc, per pound.....
Lead per pound.....
Babbet Metal per pound.....
Pewter per pound.....
Tin foil per pound.....
Old Hose free from metal per pound.....
Solid Carriage Rubber Tire per pound.....
Bicycle tires outer tubes per pound.....
Bicycle tires inner tubes per pound.....
Rope of all kinds per pound.....
Rubber No. 1 Grade per pound.....
Rubber No. 2 Grade per pound.....
Rubber No. 3 Grade per pound.....
Galvanized iron is not zinc and is worthless.
All drafts five hundred pounds and upward to be weighed on Mr. J. W. Ford's or Depot scales.

W. E. ELLIS,
PRODUCE MAN,
Hartford, Kentucky.

Sale of Hosiery

Hosiery is a small item in some people's minds. Bust how important it really is! Even the savage, who cares not for wearing apparel, will seek to protect his feet. We give Hosiery our best attention. We aim to sell only the best and give you longer wear, better fit and more sightly goods at the minimum price. If you would not darn for six months, you will buy from us a box of Hole-proof Hose. Many are satisfied, however, with unguaranteed hosiery which we sell—"Burson," "Shawknit," "Harvard" and other good makes. You will get the best if you

DEPEND ON
BARNARD & CO.
HARTFORD, KY.